

REDLINING AND GENTRIFICATION IN BALTIMORE

APRIL 18, 2019

ONE-DAY SYMPOSIUM AT MORGAN UNIVERSITY

Past to present journey of the transformation of place, race, and class in urban America. We will explore how redlining and other policies, practices, and investments had created systemic disparities and inequalities that not only perpetuate our most pressing social challenges, but impede the full potential of democracy to-date

KEY-NOTE: Antero Pietila (Not in My Neighborhood: How Bigotry Shaped a Great American City)

LECTURERS: Wouter Veldhuis and Rowin Petersma (RAvB); April de Simone (Designing the WE)

PANEL DISCUSSION: with (among others) Lori Rubeling (Stevenson University), Zevi Thomas (AIA Baltimore), Colman Jordan (Morgan State University), Jerome Gray (jerome c gray architect llc)

EXHIBITION : UNDESIGN THE REDLINE

STORYTELLING: Communities lead by Nneka Namdi (Fight Blight Bmore)

Event filmed by BEAR-TV

Morgan State University
School of Architecture and Planning
10am-5pm Room 235 @CBEIS

Explore how redlining and gentrification shaped neighborhoods in Baltimore

"This Symposium is free and open to the public"

#redlining #gentrification #socialequity #spatialequity #blight #baltimore #community design