

The design of the city is the exclusive right of investors and wealthy people. Yet, there should be another city where citizens have the right to develop themselves by shaping the context in which they live.

INFO: bit.ly/2TTIgpT

Though a parallel exploration of two cities, Baltimore and Rotterdam, this Studio creates space for citizens' self-development, and buildings that substantially contribute to a JUST city.

JUST ROTTERDAM STUDIO

March 2019

Rotterdam, for long rated as the poorest city in Holland, today blossoming into one of the most influential Global Cities.

INFO: bit.ly/2TTIgpT

Baltimore a city with tremendous potential, working to overcome a legacy of injustices.

JUST BALTIMORE STUDIO

April 2019

Within the framework of a collaborative Studio between RAVB (Rotterdamse Academie van Bouwkunst) and MSU (Morgan State University), we explore urban and architectural strategies that give citizens more relevance in the development of their own living environment.

Architecturally, we develop different building typologies for a JUST neighborhood and community where people make the changes.